Rocky Patel CARGO

PACKING IN THE SAVINGS!

Despite Rocky Patel Cargo's modest appearance, this medium-bodied blend delivers full-flavored goodness in spades. Nicaraguan tobaccos are combined in Cuban sandwich-style, then hugged by dark and oily Ecuadorian-grown Connecticut wrappers to produce a rich and creamy bouquet. Earth, sweet cedar, leather, and espresso bean linger on the palate just before a series of spices.

Park Avenue Connecticut showcases an absolutely flawless Connecticut-seed wrapper, adding a pleasant, creamy component to a leathery blend, with hints of nuts and freshly baked bread that remains smooth down to the nub.

Park Avenue Habano utilizes an Ecuadorian Habano wrapper to create a rich, hearty experience layered with robust notes of pepper, wood, cream, and earth. Provides an ample flavor, a smooth and creamy profile, and a strength level that's not at all overwhelming.

Park Avenue Maduro features a Habano Maduro wrapper from Jalapa, Nicaragua, and the same Nicaraguan long-filler blend as the original. It's a few notches up in strength and flavor, with rich and spicy notes that are smooth from the beginning to the end.

In the expensive world of cigars, Bahia cigars dare to be different. Bahia cigars focus on craftsmanship and quality above all else, and it shows: Each Bahia cigar is handmade using the finest tobaccos to deliver a cigar that performs with the best of them, sans the expensive price tag. This catalog of blends looks every bit the part of a high end cigar...without the high end price tag. Seriously, some other nefarious retailers could fetch twice the amount on sticks like this. Shameful, right? But not at CII Plus, this isn't some one-trick pony. Folks, you can savor a smooth gem in the Bahia Blu or take a turn at the rich, hearty Bahia Brazil. There's something for everyone, at prices for any wallet.

Drew Estate JAVA

Java Red is bursting at the seams with juicy cherry goodness and hints of dark cocoa and freshly-brewed coffee.

Java Latte mellows things out a bit with the creaminess of a gourmet mocha latte and just a hint of vanilla sweetness.

Java Maduro delights with a dark and oily maduro wrapper, exuding intense flavors of dark coffee with a rich finish.

Java Mint is a damn tasty blend that mixes up the invigorating flavor of mint with robust notes of mocha and vanilla.

HOT DIESELS AT 58% OFF

2018 was a good year for Diesel. The brand released their 91-rated Diesel Whiskey Row, and delivered another classic in the form of the Diesel 10th Anniversary. But one thing I noticed they missed out on was adding these two new delicious morsels into a mouth-watering sampler. Don't worry, I took the liberty and had one built. Two new Diesel releases, a classic Diesel in a hefty 6"x60 perfecto, and the best-selling Diesel Rage rounds out this stunning assortment.

THE CROWN JEWEL OF THE DOMINICAN

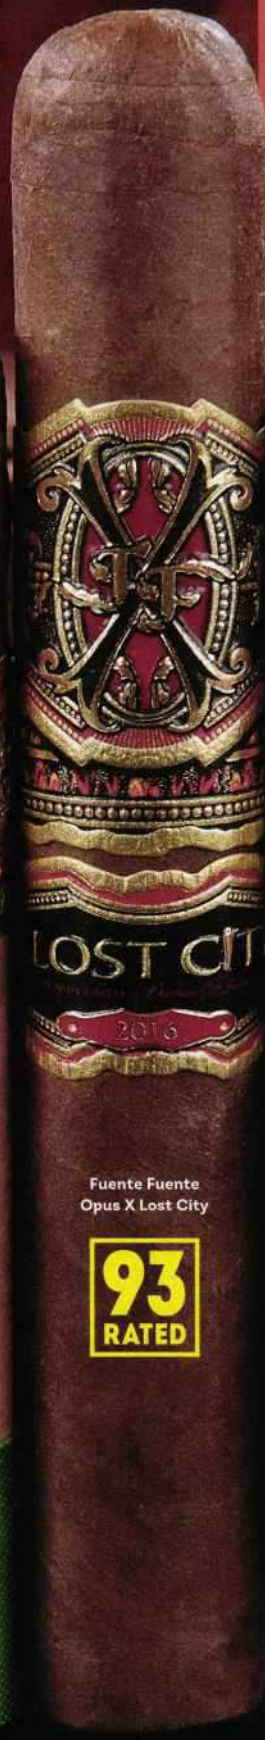

At this point in time, the Arturo Fuente cigar brand is over 100 years old. Just imagine that. An entire century of legacy and success, and I don't think Arturo Fuente cigars will be going anywhere, anytime soon. When they first began in 1912, no one imagined that they'd become a worldwide household name. But now, four generations of Fuentes, countless 90+ ratings, and a massive sea of fans later, Arturo Fuente has established themselves as an absolutely unstoppable force in the cigar industry.

C'est La Vie
[say-la-vee]

UNDER A BUCK A CIGAR

One glance at our ridiculously low prices, and you're probably wondering – how bad are these things? The answer: not bad at all. Made with a traditional 'Cuban sandwich' blend of Dominican and Nicaraguan tobaccos topped with a Connecticut wrapper leaf, C'est La Vie offers a smooth, mellow-bodied experience.

There's even a sweetened option for an extra bit of added flavor. I'm not promising much here, but I'm more than confident they'll fit the bill for mowing the lawn or working around the yard. In fact, I wouldn't be surprised if you found countless more opportunities to burn one. And the truth is, these are probably the cheapest full-sized cigars we carry.

Choose Natural or Sweet. Includes 2 same packs of 20 cigars (40 cigars total).

A TASTY TRIFECTA

The names are crazy, the packaging is bizarre, the sizes are...well, less-than-traditional, but if you know Drew Estate you're already well aware that these are on the must-try list. With a maduro wrapper that's exotic and aromatic, these non-infused cigars deliver wave after wave of delicious Drew Estate flavor. After the success of Liga Privada, Undercrown, ACID, Larutan, and more, can you really doubt that these sticks are anything less than stellar?

PINAR DEL RIO

OVERRUNS

STEAK AT FROZEN DINNER PRICES

The Dominican-based Pinar del Rio brand is responsible for a slew of delicious, full-flavored brands, that's no secret. But from time to time, production is exceeded. This can result from a myriad of reasons, reasons I won't bore you with. What's important here is that the factory is left with overruns. Each and every one a first-rate specimen, but what's even more enjoyable are my dirt-cheap prices. The only catch? Inventory can be spotty. So get in, load up, and check out quick!

THE NATURAL CHOICE

The Larutan line by Drew Estate is a cigar you have to try. If Larutan looks a little familiar, it should! This line of blends recently underwent a name change, but the insides are the same. Made with a host of rare, gourmet tobaccos from all over the world, Larutan is one of the most unique brands around. Drew Estate is untouchable when it comes to infused cigars. With Tabak Especial they've taken coffee-infused cigars to new heights. Jonathan Drew has expertly combined Esteli-grown long-filler tobaccos with Nicaragua's finest coffee beans. The result is a rich tobacco core layered with smooth espresso and a touch of milk chocolate, balanced by a sweet aftertaste.

Ole Shenandoah CHEROOTS

Listen, you might call me crazy, but these little Ole Shenandoah Cheroots are one of my absolute favorite cigars to come through the office in years. But before I get into that, let's get a few things out of the way.

1.) These are not fancy cigars.
2.) They are not pretty.
But they taste awesome and burn well, and that's what really counts. Featuring a Pennsylvania Broadleaf wrapper and a unique, smoky flavor, each one of the undeniably American offerings in this trilogy is the perfect option for a quick smoke.

DIESEL MEGA-SAMPLER II

J6CASST4-SP 20 Cigars MSRP $165 $69.99

Diesel cigars are the finely tuned sports cars of the cigar world. With plenty of power, yet a remarkably graceful and smooth ride. Started in Nicaragua under the watchful eye of renowned blender AJ Fernandez, Diesel is a high-octane blend that brings top-shelf quality and flavor at everyman prices. Diesel Unholy Cocktail is the original blend that started it all. This satisfying cigar yields a layered, spicy-sweet profile that'll keep you constantly coming back for more. But let's just cut to the chase, shall we? You're probably wondering what's all the fuss about the new Diesels, right? Let's start with Diesel's Whiskey Row Sherry Cask. The core of this cigar is made up entirely of Nicaraguan long-fillers from 3 different growing regions. The binder? The Brazilian binder is aged in Rabbit Hole Bourbon barrels and then finished with a dark, smooth Connecticut Broadleaf maduro wrapper. And Diesel d.10th, you ask? This is the most potent of all. Featuring an all-Nicaraguan blend, this powerhouse is finished with a Habano Oscuro wrapper that'll blow you away, but still leave you wanting more.

JOYA DEL JEFE

Joya del Jefe ain't the world's finest and will not be winning any awards among the chardonnay-and-brie crowd. However, if you're looking for a knockaround, enjoyable handmade at a cheapie price for in-between times, try this one on for size. It's a bargain, it's long-filler, and it's subtle.

MAGELLAN DOMINICANS

Magellan is a smooth, pleasant, and creamy Dominican handmade. So instead of shelling out 100+ bucks per box, you can burn these instead and pay well under $1 per cigar. I think that's why many of my customers call it the "poor man's AVO."

Vintage Doppel Gordo are box-pressed beauties made in small-batch production sizes in the brand's top-selling vintage maduro line.

Serie '55' Imperial Habano is well balanced and complex, packed to the gills with notes of espresso, oak, leather, earth, and sweet cream.

Serie '55' Imperial CT is an ultra creamy Connecticut-wrapped premium, densely-filled, and as decadently smooth as they come.

Serie '55' Imperial Maduro utilizes a Pennsylvania Broadleaf maduro wrapper and produces complex and rich notes of coffee, chocolate, and pepper.

Primeros is loaded with smooth, creamy flavors, this pleasantly mellow cigar features a golden brown Connecticut wrapper and an aged long-filler blend.

Triple Corrojo is 100% Corrojo - wrapper, binder, and fillers. The result is a firecracker booming with chewy, rich, hearty flavors.

Connecticut Yankee features a Havana-seed leaf grown in Connecticut. The wrapper's rich flavor is combined with a premium blend of Nicaraguan and Dominican long-fillers.

Vintage Select offers a dark, delicious Brazilian maduro wrapper and supremely aged mix of all Cuban-seed Dominican long-leaf tobaccos.

SHORT IN LENGTH — but — BIG ON FLAVOR

Nub cigars started as a theory. Born in the Oliva factory, a cigar maker was hell-bent on proving he could capture the essence – the core – of a cigar's flavor immediately upon lighting and throughout the duration of the blend. Each size is short and stout in stature. That's by design, not for novelty, as blends and sizes were worked and re-worked a thousand ways from Sunday in order to capture the essence of each Nub cigar blend.

25th Anniversary Silver hosts a bevy of vintage Nicaraguan long-fillers, all hugged by a premium, refined Nicaraguan binder. A reddish-hued, Cuban-seed Habano wrapper encases these tobaccos, resulting in a balanced aromatic experience, chock-full of honey, dark cocoa, and leather nuances.

Nica Libre is packed with Nicaraguan long-fillers and finished with a San Andrés maduro wrapper, delivering notes of coffee and earth in balanced fashion. The original blend in the portfolio, this classic has been a sales juggernaut since day one.

Potencia is a small-batch, Nicaraguan beauty from the Oliva family. Carefully crafted with a reddish-hued Habano Sun Grown wrapper and a blend of well-aged Nicaraguan ligeros, Potencia brings a deep, complex flavor. Powerful, yet smooth and refined, and loaded with notes of coffee, spice, earth, and dark chocolate overtop a rich tobacco core.

Icon is mellow to medium-bodied with tri-country tobaccos; finished with a Connecticut wrapper.

Inspirado White features a golden Ecuador Connecticut wrapper with Nicaraguan and aged Mexican San Andrés filler leaves.

Inspirado Orange has a Honduran wrapper with tri-country long-fillers, giving it a rich blend of almond, pepper, and leather flavors.

Inspirado Red features an Ecuadorian wrapper leaf, Nicaraguan and Honduran long-fillers.

Crú Royale has an Ecuadorian Habano leaf, with Nicaraguan, Dominican, and Brazilian long-fillers.

Gold Label has a golden Connecticut shade wrapper, Cuban-seed Dominican and Mexican filler, with an unusual lemony sweetness.

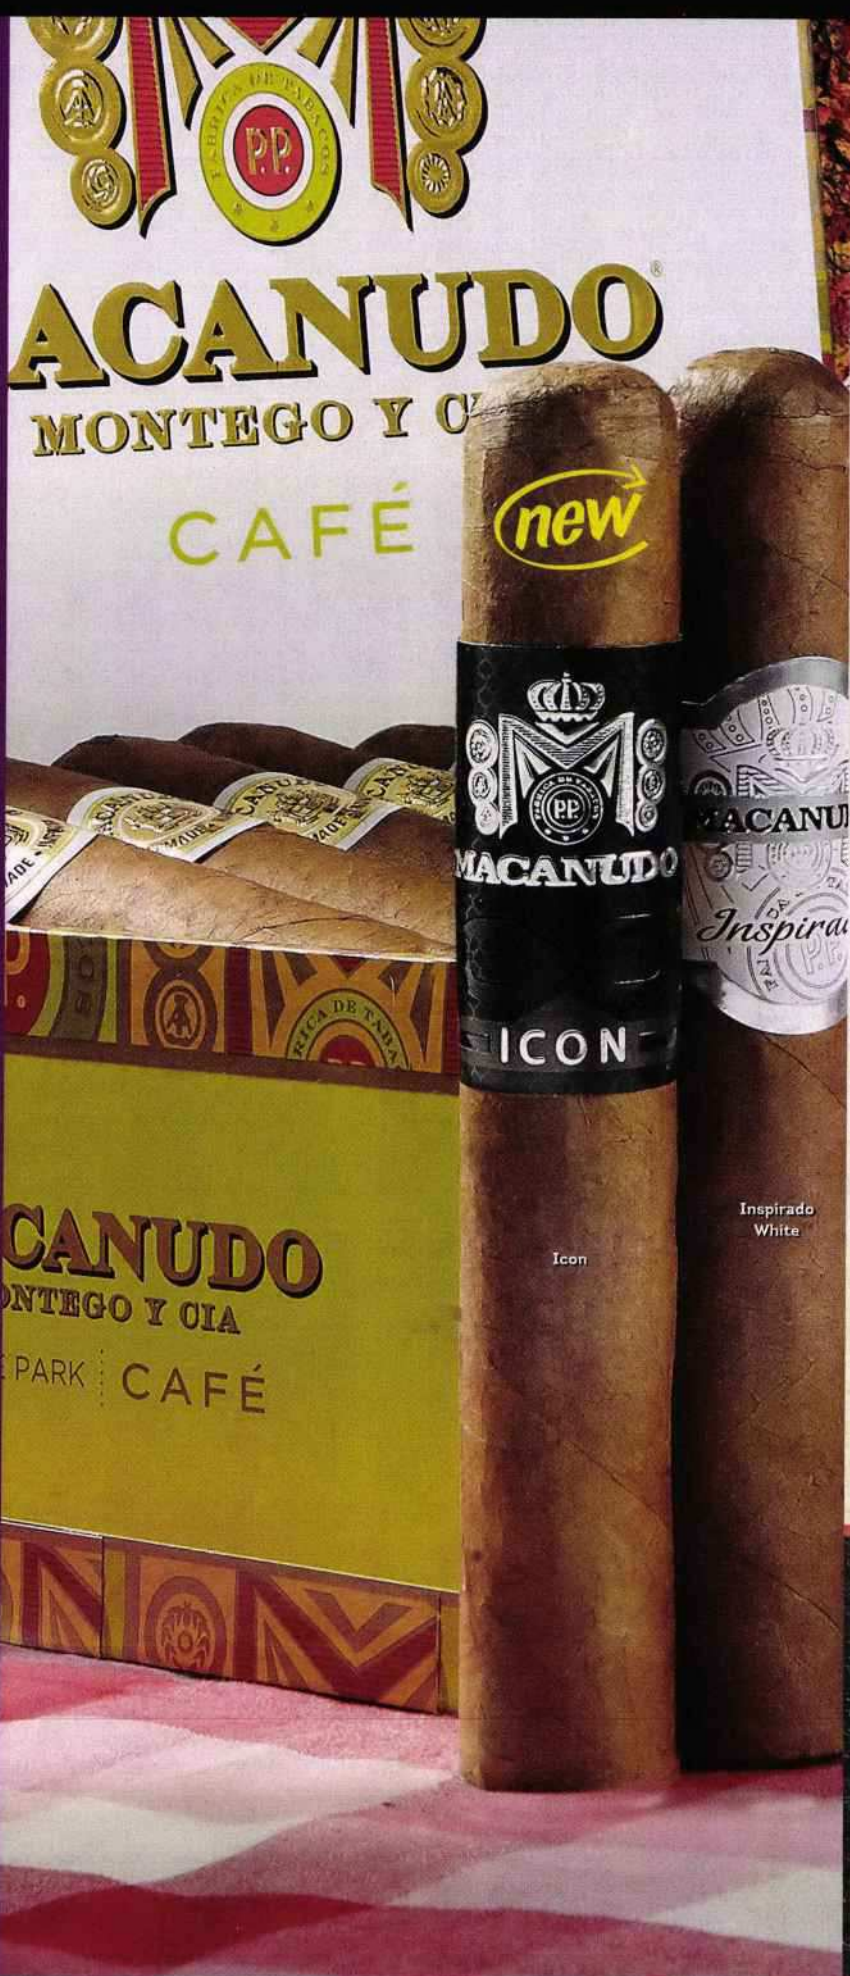

Café features Dominican and Mexican fillers and Connecticut Shade wrappers.

Maduro has a Connecticut Broadleaf maduro wrapper with Mexican and Dominican long-fillers, giving it hearty notes of spice, chocolate, coffee, and cedar.

Inspirado Black has a Connecticut Broadleaf wrapper encasing a blend of Nicaraguan fillers.

Vintage Maduro 1997 has a dark maduro flavor and a soothingly sweet aftertaste.

BACCARAT'S THE NAME VALUE'S THE GAME

One of the best-sellers in the business, Baccarat is an extraordinary experience for the money. But don't just take my word for it, over 600 members of CI Nation have given this flavorful handmade a well-deserved 4.5 out of 5 rating. The secret? Havana-seed Honduran long-fillers. Meld those together with a beautiful Mexican binder and you've got a recipe for success - a slightly sweet, coffee taste comes through on each puff, staying cool to the very end. Baccarat is available in Connecticut, Maduro, and Candela wrapper varieties, but whichever one you go for, you're going to come out on top because Baccarat has every palate covered. But that's not all! The new Baccarat Nicaragua offers the strongest Baccarat to date. Coming wrapped in a sultry Habano wrapper and featuring a Sumatra binder over Nicaraguan fillers, the toasty and slightly sweet leather and cedar flavors are always a safe bet. Now they really have something for everyone!

Olancho Vintage features an absolutely beautiful Colorado Oscuro Olancho wrapper, grown exclusively for this cigar. Expect a medium to full-bodied blend with blasts of earth, spice, leather, and cedar in a harmony that feels different than anything I've burnt before...

Genesis Habano utilizes the original Genesis blend, but is now paired with a dark, leathery, and insanely delicious Ecuadorian Habano ligero wrapper. A rich and hearty core laced with ligero is backed by complex notes of wood, espresso, pepper, honey, and roasted nuts.

Genesis The Project is an expertly-blended creation, secured inside a feisty Jamastran binder and cloaked by a dark and oily triple-fermented Connecticut Broadleaf maduro wrapper. Thick and creamy flavor coats the palate, dusting the taste buds with hearty notes of espresso, freshly roasted nuts, earth, and nutmeg, with a long and savory finish.

Exclusivo features a Connecticut wrapper that hugs Nicaraguan long-fillers to deliver a creamy, peppery profile that'll be sure to wake you up. As the cigar progresses, slight notes of coffee and cedar join the mix. This is a perfect mellow to medium-bodied cigar.

And in true CI fashion, it's bigger and better than ever! 20 beauties, bursting at the seams with flavor, for the low, low price of $54⁹⁹. Sounds good, right? I'd say it's downright magical. How magical you ask? I'm reluctant to say for fear of diminishing the joy of the whole by concentrating on its parts. I can tell you that the price is cut to the bone, proving the old maxim that beauty may run deep, but ugly (and CI discounts) goes right to the bone!

Padilla FUMAS

Connecticut is filled with a blend of Nicaraguan tobaccos. Mellow to medium-bodied, these cigars are smooth and earthy with subtle notes of coffee, cream, and sweet spices.

Habano is a 'Cuban-sandwich' version of the same blend that rocketed Padilla to the top. A spicy Habano wrapper hugs Nicaraguan tobaccos, these medium to full-bodied handmades are spicy and smooth.

Maduro features a dark, oily maduro wrapper concealing a blend of Nicaraguan tobaccos and features rich notes of coffee, chocolate, spice, and slight pepper.

SKIP DESSERT,
GRAB SECONDS!

PACK OF 15
as low as $49.99

It's no secret among herfers that Rocky Patel makes some great cigars. Particularly good are his Vintage cigars. And particularly special is this deal. You see, his rate of rejection is much higher than average, thus a small mountain of "Seconds" has been accumulating in the factory. These Seconds are labeled as such because they have been rejected strictly for cosmetic reasons. The wrappers are a little splotchy or have a slight discoloration. The blend is the same, box-pressed and aged to perfection. You could burn them blindfolded and detect no difference. The beauty is that the price is far, far less. Just remember: this is not a regular production cigar. My supply is dictated by what the factory has available.

Choose Maduro 1990, Connecticut 1999, or Sumatra 1992.

Royale Fumas are Cuban sandwich style blends. Ask anyone who's tried other Rocky Fumas, and they'll tell you these cigars are well worth the price of admission. Royale Fumas sport an Ecuadorian Sumatra wrapper and notes of leather, coffee, and spice.

The Edge Fumas have a bold, well-balanced profile. They are available in three different wrappers: a spicy Corojo leaf, a super-rich Maduro that's dark and glistening with oils, or a hearty Habano option that's rife with Cuban-esque character.

AVO CIGARS

Avo Uvezian got into cigars through the world of music. Sounds bizarre, until you realize that his passion for jazz led to the same adventurous, experimental mindset behind his premium tobacco blending. Hailing from the Dominican Republic, AVO cigars are known for having a classic and distinct mellow to medium-bodied flavor profile by using only the most carefully selected and refined tobaccos. No blend shows this off better than AVO Classic, a terrific cigar with a smooth taste and wonderful aroma. In 2016, AVO released the follow-up to their popular Syncro Nicaragua blend with AVO Syncro Nicaragua Fogata, a medium to full-bodied firecracker. It's no wonder why AVO is one of the most sought-after brands in the business.

Padilla

HYBRID

BACK & BETTER THAN EVER!

A Hybrid you won't be embarrassed to show your friends! Remember this one? Easily one of Padilla's most legendary brands. Well now, it's back and burning better than ever. Sun-grown, Connecticut-seed 'hybrid' wrappers grown in Honduras are paired with an aged blend of Cuban-seed long-fillers from Nicaragua, the Dominican, and Peru to create a bold and eventful blend that's smooth and mellow to medium in body. Expect a balanced assortment of woody and leathery flavors with a touch of spice and a pleasantly rich aroma. In short, Padilla at a discount of 52% off MSRP is sheer lunacy. But nutty prices are mere routine by CI standards, because we're crazier than a sack full of ferrets!

Isla del Sol

BY DREW ESTATE

Isla del Sol has long been a champion of Drew Estate's cigar portfolio. Each cigar comes with a rich blend of aged Nicaraguan tobaccos inside a beautiful, chocolate-brown, "Sun-Blessed" Sumatra wrapper. The blend combines Drew Estate's renowned infusion process and pairs them with prices that any red-blooded cigar enthusiast could get behind. But this champ is about to get a tag team partner. Enter Isla del Sol Maduro. This delicious morsel contains the exact same tobaccos as the original, but now it comes wrapped in a dark maduro.

GREAT DOESN'T ALWAYS EQUAL EXPENSIVE

Rocky Patel Broadleaf features a dark, oily Connecticut Broadleaf maduro wrapper that conceals a hearty blend of Honduran and Nicaraguan long-fillers. Together, they create a smooth, complex experience that's layered with notes of cocoa, espresso, honey, and pepper. One of Rocky's finest maduro creations, at CI's low prices.

Rocky Patel Connecticut combines Honduran long-filler tobaccos with a silky Ecuadorian Connecticut wrapper to create a subtle, smooth and soothing experience that will satisfy any palate. This cigar is, simply put, another outstanding super premium from one of the hottest makers in the business today.

5 Vegas Big Five features a smooth Ecuadorian Habano wrapper, and is packed with Habano tobaccos from Jalapa, Ometepe, Condega, and Esteli. This medium-bodied behemoth hits the spot with rich notes of earth, cedar, vanilla and spice.

5 Vegas Triple-A is a creation of bold tobaccos blended to generate a unique profile. Fillers from Esteli were chosen for richness, Condega fillers were added to promote a dense, aromatic bouquet, and tobaccos from Jalapa to contribute balance and smoothness.

5 Vegas Series 'A' is covered in a Costa Rican maduro wrapper that hugs a tri-country long-filler blend of four-year-aged tobaccos. The whole thing rests for six additional months after being rolled, and it delivers a panoply of robust, medium to full-bodied flavors, including subtle spices and coffee notes.

5 Vegas Classic is a blend of Cuban-seed long-fillers from Nicaragua and the Dominican Republic paired with a Sumatra wrapper. Rich and creamy notes of tobacco with hints of toast, coffee, nuts, and gentle spices on the finish.

5 Vegas Gold Anniversary is wrapped in a carefully grown Connecticut leaf, with nearly invisible seams and a satiny, smooth texture. Made at the Perdomo factory, a blend of Nicaraguan fillers gives the smooth, mellow profile a bit of extra spice and a rich character.

5 Vegas Gold is crafted by industry legend Nestor Plasencia with aged tobaccos including an Ecuador Connecticut wrapper leaf. Up front you'll find a slight nutty taste followed by some peppery notes on the back of the palate.

Charming, charismatic, intense...I could go on and on about Nick Perdomo. The man makes a damn fine cigar. Perdomo Champagne, Perdomo 20th Anniversary, and the popular Perdomo Craft Series are just a few of the iconic cigars this man has brought to market. The catalog of blends have received over thirty 90+ ratings. Top-quality Nicaraguan blends are easy to find, but none taste as good as Perdomo's. And none are priced as low as what CI offers.

CI = Legends

MEGA-SAMPLER™ II

Welcome to Darwin's jungle, where only the strong survive. At hand, you'll find a truckload of Diesels that'll put bass in your voice and vertebrae in your back, including the porterhouse-like Unholy Cocktail and the limited edition, ill-mannered Rage. For most, simply concocting a sampler of this magnitude would be enough to call it a job well done, but you know CI don't play that way. I'm throwing caution to the wind, along with 'suggested' retail prices, and offering you this mouthwatering sampler for over 60% off MSRP. Dip in early and often, but be careful, this deal is more dangerous than those sandwiches with toothpicks in 'em.

Diesel Mega-Sampler II includes 20 cigars:
 (5) Diesel Unholy Cocktail Torpedo (5"x56)
 (5) Diesel Unlimited d.5 (5.5"x54)
 (5) Diesel Unlimited d.5 Maduro (5.5"x54)
 (5) Diesel Rage Toro (6"x54)

LEGENDARY FOR OVER 150 YEARS

It doesn't get much more classic than this. With over one and half centuries in the cigar business, Hoyo de Monterrey has stood the test of time. Their traditional Cuban-esque blends have laid an incredibly stable foundation for the new AJ Fernandez releases that have taken the industry by storm. And did I mention the long list of stellar 90+ ratings throughout their long and storied career? But don't take my word for it, try an impressive offering from Hoyo today!

HIGH RATINGS AND ACCOLADES TO SPARE

Sometimes, you want a great cigar to celebrate life's special moments. Because sometimes you want the best of the best, the cream of the crop. Enter Padrón cigars. Established in 1964, Padrón consistently makes some of the finest cigars in the world. And that's not just us saying it. This is a brand that has been rated 90 or higher over 100 times, including an astounding 97-rating on the Padrón 1926 Series. So what makes Padrón one of the top cigar brands? It's simple – they're family owned, and they pay personal attention to every single premium cigar that comes out of their highly-esteemed factory. That quality control isn't just talk, either – in all of our years enjoying their cigars, we've never had a "bad" Padrón. It just doesn't happen. The only question now is where to start. If you're looking for a mellower cigar, check out Padrón Dámaso – it's a newer release in their legacy, but is one of our favorite Connecticut on the market. And of course the standard Padrón cigar is a great place to start: 93-rated, Nicaraguan made box-pressed cigars, with a delicious and complex array of flavors.

GRAN HABANO VINTAGE

NOTHING SHORT OF MONUMENTAL

Vintage 2004 boasts a light brown, Shade-grown wrapper cultivated in 2004 that covers Nicaraguan long-fillers; this blend is supremely smooth while still maintaining an intense flavor experience.

Vintage 2002 features Habano-seed long-fillers from Nicaragua and the Dominican, and a juicy Nicaraguan-grown Corojo wrapper leaf cultivated back in 2002. The outcome is virtuous: a deep series of rich, creamy flavors smacking of coffee, nuts, and earth.

Vintage 2006 showcases an oily, glistening Habano wrapper cultivated back in 2006. Full-flavored with a long finish, you'll see why Gran Habano is a powerhouse brand when you're hit with notes of cedar, almonds, and spice.

A KNIGHT TO REMEMBER!

Crafted by AJ Fernandez from tobaccos grown in the ultra-fertile volcanic soils of Nicaragua, Ave Maria cigars boast a pedigree few other brands can. Each creation features spot-on construction, rich flavor, and a loyal fan base. Now featuring a bullpen that's 6-deep, it all began with the original. A fair-priced, high-grade blend of supreme tobaccos, whose character set the bar high for any follow-ups. However, AJ would not fall short. Each addition to the brand, from Reconquista and Immaculata to Divinia and Argentum, continues to raise the bar. You can't go wrong when you choose Ave Maria.

Captain McMellow's 20-CIGAR COLLECTION

A MELLOW-BODIED SMORGASBORD

The mellow cigar reigns supreme! If you love your cigars mellow, then here's one that you should take a very close look at. Macanudo, Gurkha, Man O' War, and 5 Vegas, all in their Connecticut best, all oh-so tasty blends, and all top-sellers. That's probably enough to seal the deal alone, but I'm not done. I'm taking 128 bucks off the suggested retail prices (that's not a typo), landing these lovelies for just $3⁵⁰ per cigar.

Captain McMellow's 20-Cigar Collection includes 20 cigars:
(5) Gurkha Symphony Grand Rothschild (6.5"x55)
(5) 5 Vegas Gold Toro (6"x50)
(5) Man O' War Virtue Toro (6"x50)
(5) Macanudo Café Hyde Park (5.5"x49)

Why pay more? MAKE THE SWITCH & SAVE!

I see it all the time. The folks that order Machine Mades on the regular never switch brands. And that's cool. I can respect it. You see, we've assembled the perfect substitutions for your everyday blends. Cigars that deliver similar flavor, for a fraction of the price. So jump ship and see what you're missing!

THE CURE FOR THE DAILY GRIND

Drew Estate and its cadre of blends need no introduction. The brand has earned its place in this business with its mouth-watering ACID lines and highly-rated traditional blends. And Tabak Especial? Hell, we can barely keep them in stock. But for this line-up, we've cashed in all of our chips and brought in a truckload of these decadent delights.

Drew Estate's Brew Estate Mega-Sampler includes 20 cigars:

Original CUBANS

THE HEAVENLY TASTE OF A 1959 CUBAN

Most know that despite the hype and reputation, the shine is gone from the Cuban cigar industry. Those that remember the legendary, authentic Cuban cigars know that they tasted sort of like vanilla ice cream soda. And about halfway through, you'd get a little bit light-headed and realize that these babies were potent, but you'd notice it more in the belly than in the palate. "Original" Cubans bring back that incredible taste. Made in the Dominican Republic, these beauties offer the perfect draw and sweet, smooth power. You'll fall in love with these cigars!

OBSIDIAN

WHITE NOISE

MAKE SOME NOISE WITH OBSIDIAN!

Obsidian White Noise is not mellow. Don't confuse the alabaster glow of the band with something that's light and airy. White Noise starts with a smooth, hearty Ecuadorian Habano wrapper. The wrapper is seemingly dripping with oils and will get any enthusiast's palate salivating. The fillers from the Dominican and Nicaragua round the blend out and make for a medium to full-bodied cigar loaded with notes of coffee, cashews, cedar, and light hints of vanilla on the finish. The original established the brand's potential, Obsidian White Noise realizes that potential.

FULL-FORCE FLAVOR FROM PDR!

Feast your eyes on a blend more than two years in the making; a cigar so rich, so elegant, and so exceptionally bold that you'll find yourself with an unbearable craving for more. From the makers of Pinar del Rio enters Obsidian, featuring Cuban-seed long leaves from Nicaragua and the Dominican masked by a creamy, dark, and super-oily Brazilian Habano Ligero wrapper. REPOSADO

FRESH FROM THE FACTORY

REPOSADO '96

Masterfully constructed, these cigars are rare gems utilizing first-class long-fillers with premium wrapper leaves. The tobaccos are all Cuban-seed Nicaraguan grown, and the blend is only available in a stout, 7.1"x58 frame. Rolled under the careful supervision of AJ Fernandez, creator of the legendary Man O' War brand, these cigars are a true delight.

Upon lighting, you're met with subtle, earthy flavors and hints of spice that slowly build as the burn progresses towards the head of the cigar. Expect an even burn and a creamy character with underlying hints of espresso and cocoa thrown into the mix.
